

Helping children master
the art of growing up

In your current classroom environment, what do your students currently hear, say, feel, do, see and learn?

Hear
Say
Feel
Do
See
Learn

Questions to Keep in Mind:

- What messages are you currently giving your students about how they can express themselves in your class?
- Is your classroom an environment where students feel safe enough to share how they are feeling and what they are experiencing on a daily basis?
- Is your classroom learning environment one where students are asked to explore, experiment, and discover?
- Do your students see others (students and faculty) sharing their experiences as a means to authentic learning?